To prevent Mistakes, those who send for any Books are desired, beside the Number, to send the first Word and the Price of the Article they want.

 Book-Binding done in the neatest Manner, and exceeding cheap.

N. B. As J. LACKINGTON keeps many Binders in the House, any Books in his Catalogues which are said to be Sewed, in Sheets, or in Boards, may be had bound in a plain, elegant, or splendid Manner, at a Week's Notice, for which a very moderate Charge will be made; or in case any Book (new or second-hand) is already bound in a plain Manner, it may be gilt, and if an Octavo or Twelves, the additional Expence will be but 6d. And if any Book should happen to be bound in Sheep, a Duplicate is (in general) kept in Calf, and by adding 6d to the Price of an Octavo, and 4d to a Twelves, it may be had in Calf instead of Sheep.

Which is most apt to procure general Estimation, the Reality of Virtue or the Appearance of it? Whether the Calamities of the Empire are to be attributed more to the Intrigues of the Cabinet, the Venality of Parliament, or the Servility and Profligacy of the People? Which is more detrimental to the Constitution, Prerogative as it stood before the Revolution, or the Influence of the Crown as it hath arisen since? Is it agreeable to the Maxims of sound Policy, for any Protestant Government to tolerate Popery? Which is more eligible, a State of Liberty without Property, or a State of Property without Liberty? With many other Debates on curious and interesting Questions. Also Letters, &c. 2 vol new, in boards, 1s 9d (the same edition is sold by the publishers at 7s sewed)
